❑ Complete clinical practice/internship.

❑ Complete all Foliotek requirements if your program requires you to have an account.

❑ Complete Child Abuse & FERPA Training.

❑ Complete COE Exit Survey.

❑ Meet any additional program-specific requirements for completion.

Applying for Certification

Things you should do before meeting with Mrs. Kate Character, Certification Official:

- Pass the GACE Content Assessment.
- Pass the Georgia Educator Ethics – Program Exit (360) Assessment (only for teacher education programs).
- Graduate Students Only: Grad students must have official, unopened transcripts from all institutions attended (other than UGA) sent directly to the GaPSC at mail@gapsc.com.

❑ Step 1: Obtain your certification packet

You will receive a certification packet from Mrs. Kate Character, Certification Official, when she meets with your class during the clinical practice semester. If you miss the meeting, contact Mrs. Character at 706-542-4218 to set up a time to meet with her. You will not be able to process your certification paperwork without talking with Mrs. Character.
Step 2: Order an official UGA transcript

Your degree must be posted (awarded) before you request a transcript. Check Athena to make sure the status of your degree says, “Awarded” before you request an electronic transcript.

Go to www.reg.uga.edu to request an electronic transcript to be emailed to the GaPSC at mail@gapsc.com.

($8.00 per transcript)
